

THE 2018 SUMMER SERIES (only $135)

We are trying out our new June series in 2018; of course, the artists will be at our usual high level. It is a standalone series, but you can simply add it to your regular subscription if you like. Give it a try!

Anderson & Roe Piano Duo Mon, 6/4/18 at 7:30 pm
Greg Anderson and Elizabeth Joy Roe are both remarkable, dynamic performers in their own right, and together they form an unstoppable force. "Exhilarating" — Gramophone. "An almost telepathic understanding of each other's musicianship, and transcendental technique." — The Straits Times

Sergey Khachatryan, violin Mon, 6/11/18 at 7:30 pm
Yes, he has won Gold Medals at two top competitions (the Sibelius and the Queen Elizabeth), and yes, he is sought after by the greatest conductors (Masur, Conlon, Sir Mackerras, Pletnev, Gergiev), but the main attraction is his enormous talent and his seductively rich, soul-drenched tone.

Escher Quartet (w/Jean-Michel Fonteneau) Mon, 6/18/18 at 7:30 pm
This excellent group has performed at Lincoln Center, Kennedy Center, the Louvre and the summer festivals of both Pinchas Zukerman and Itzhak Perlman. Their concert for us will feature Schubert's immortal Cello Quintet. "Finely honed technique and a focused ensemble blend." — Boston Globe

2018 SEASON SCHEDULE

at the Oshman Family JCC, Palo Alto

James Ehnes, violin

Mon, 2/12/18 at 7:30 pm
Known for his virtuosity and probing musicianship, Ehnes has performed in 35 countries on five continents, appearing regularly in the world's most prestigious concert halls with many of the top orchestras and conductors. Hailed as "the Jascha Heifetz of our day" (Globe and Mail), the Grammy-winning Ehnes is acknowledged as one of the world's finest violinists.

Michael Schade, tenor and Livia Sohn, violin

Mon, 2/26/18 at 7:30 pm
Celebrated tenor Michael Schade is in high demand at the Vienna State Opera, Metropolitan Opera, La Scala and the Salzburg Festival and, as a recitalist, his luminous tone fills the world's top venues. Schade and noted violinist Livia Sohn will partner in a unique program that features arrangements Fritz Kreisler created to perform with legendary tenor John McCormack.

Israeli Chamber Project

Mon, 3/19/18 at 7:30 pm
This extraordinary ensemble, based in Israel and New York, is composed of award-winning soloists who have come together to promote the very best in the chamber music repertoire. One of their core members is a virtuoso harpist, and their program for us will include Ravel's ravishing (but rarely heard) Introduction and Allegro for Flute, Clarinet, Harp and String Quartet.

Artemis Quartet

Mon, 4/16/18 at 7:30 pm
Musical connoisseurs admire this stunning group, one of the leading quartets in Germany. The Artemis has its own critically acclaimed series in the Berlin Philharmonie and is also quartet-in-residence at the Vienna Konzerthaus. "Their performances overflow with fullness of sound, delineated structure and unparalleled drama." — Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung.

Alexander Gavrylyuk, piano

Mon, 5/21/18 at 7:30 pm
This Ukrainian artist is an incandescent virtuoso in the spirit of Horowitz; his playing generates a level of visceral excitement rarely seen onstage. Gold Medalist at the Arthur Rubinstein Competition (as well as the Horowitz and the Hammamatsu Competitions), Gavrylyuk brandishes a jaw-dropping technique, but is always rooted in a sensitive and profound musicianship.
