2017 Season Schedule

at the Oshman Family JCC, Palo Alto

Olga Kern, piano

Mon, 2/13/17 at 7:30 pm

With her charismatic stage presence, passionately confident musicianship and jaw-dropping technique, this glamorous young Russian pianist was the first woman in thirty years to win the Gold Medal at the Van Cliburn Competition. She has gone on to collaborate with such artists as Vladimir Spivakov, Kathleen Battle and Renée Fleming.

Pinchas Zukerman, violin

Mon, 2/27/17 at 7:30 pm

The multiple Grammy-winning marvel – equally renowned as violinist, violist and conductor – does not give many recitals in the Bay Area, so this will be a rare opportunity to hear one of the legends of our time: a deeply musical virtuoso, currently playing at the height of his powers. MOZART, BEETHOVEN, BRAHMS

Pavel Haas Quartet

Mon, 3/27/17 at 7:30 pm

"The perfect fusion of virtuosity and profundity" (The Times), the PHQ is known for its electrifying performances at the world's top venues. Their recordings bristle with awards and critical raves: "fervent, fearless risktaking," "blazingly vivid" and "among the greatest recordings on disc." DVORAK, MARTINU, SMETANA

Jean-Efflam Bavouzet, piano

Mon, 4/10/17 at 7:30 pm

One of the most engaging performers on stage today, this artist regularly works with conductors such as Ashkenazy, Boulez and Gergiev and is in demand at the world's most prestigious venues. His recordings of Haydn, Beethoven, Debussy and Ravel have won many awards, and he will perform this repertoire for us.

Widmann-Altstaedt-Lonquich Trio

Mon, 5/1/17 at 7:30 pm

Violinist Carolin Widmann (Leipzig Gewandhaus, London Philharmonic, BBC Symphony etc.), cellist Nicolas Altstaedt (Dudamel, Marriner, Ashkenazy etc.) and pianist Alexander Lonquich (Kavakos, Isserlis, Joshua Bell etc.) are all highly regarded soloists in Europe. Together they form a profoundly insightful ensemble delivering performances of uncommon depth.

RENEW EARLY and then relax – you've got the best seats reserved!
